The Monthly Chronicle of the Robbers Roost Vigilantes

From The President

September is Membership Renewal Month!!

Eleven shooters turned out on August 6th to try their hand at some fast and furious stages by Justin O Sheriff. Eleven is a good number if you do it right, and they did, because they all left with smiles on their faces and with the mercury still in the 80's. Justin O Sheriff lapped the field and won the match by around 75 seconds. Soledad, Buckhorn Bud, Harvey Mushman, and Orland Granger rounded out the top 5. Kentucky Gal was top lady and 6th overall. Sheriff shot the match clean, and I have run out of jokes about the number of MC Ryder's knives he has collected.

The third weekend was our annual invasion of the Bridgeport Vigilantes. It was a two day affair, with those who shot on both Friday and Saturday being scored against one another, and those who shot only on Saturday scored in a separate one-day match.

Eight shooters shot on both Friday and Saturday, for a total of eleven stages. Tehachapi Hornn took top honors, followed by Ben Maverick, Yours Truly, Squeaky Whiel, Southpaw, Desert Willow, Spin N Whiel, and Bodie Kid. They don't do categories at Bridgeport, so manly men such as Southpaw and myself were shooting against the squaw-grippers, but it's all good. On Saturday, five more shooters showed up. Washoe Zephyr was the top gun among the one-day shooters, followed by Reese River Ruby, Long Arm, Rusty Dover, Ben T. Hellenbach, and Elise, who is Rusty Dover and Belle E. Button's 14-year-old foster daughter. She's gonna be a good one, I predict!

The RRV was well-represented, and not only by the shooters mentioned above. The list also included Belle E. Button and Lily Long Branch, who made the trip but didn't shoot. It was great to see Squeaky and Spin N Whiel again, over from their new digs in Minden, and also old friends Ben Maverick and his better half, Chippewa Girl. As always, the pot luck on Friday and the cookout on Saturday provided great food and the opportunity to sit around and swap stories as the cool evening wore on.

4th Annual RRV Invasion of the Bridgeport Vigilantes Was a Hoot!!

On Friday, August 19, RRV members Nasty Newt and Desert Willow, and Squeaky Whiel and Spin N Whiel (over from their new digs in Minden) joined in the six stages of fun. That evening, we all gathered around for a belt-bustin' pot luck. Former RRV members (and we're hoping future ones as well) Chippewa Girl and Ben Maverick joined in the fun.

On Saturday, the RRV showed up in force as Rusty Dover, Ben T. Hellenbach, and Elise joined in. Belle E. Button and Lily Long Branch were in attendance, but didn't shoot. Elise is Rusty and Belle's foster child, and at 14, she shows a lot of promise as a shooter.
